PRIVACY POLICY - UPDATED ON JUNE 2nd, 2020

Martin Sermak ("MSTECH") built the "Application", "Service", "Extension", "Website". All the above is provided by MSTECH either free of charge or for a fee, and is intended for use as is. By using the above, you agree to the collection and use of information as outlined below. The information that may be collected is only used for providing and improving our "Application", "Service", "Extension", "Website" and we will not use or share your information with anyone except as described in this policy.

Information Collection

We do not explicitly collect or transmit any information in our "Application", "Service", "Extension", "Website" that could be used to personally identify you. Our "Application", "Service", "Extension", "Website" uses third party services (for example "Google AdMob", "Google Maps", etc.) that may collect information used to identify you. Any information collected would be securely transmitted.

Log Data

When using our "Application", "Service", "Extension", "Website", and only in a case of an error we may collect data and information (through third party products) from your device called Log Data. This data may include information such as your device Internet Protocol ("IP") address, device name, operating system version, configuration data, the time & date, and other statistics required for troubleshooting.

Cookies

We do not explicitly use "cookies", except when necessary for storing and processing of a particular user setting. The cookies are automatically removed when they are no longer needed.

Security

We value your trust and thus we use all commercially acceptable means of protecting any information contained inside our "Application", "Service", "Extension", "Website", however since no method of transmission over the internet, or method of electronic storage, is 100% secure and reliable, we cannot guarantee its absolute security.

App Permissions

We may request access to your device's "Photo Library" in order to save or open a particular photo, as well as request access to your device's "GPS Sensor" in order to obtain your "location". The information that we request will be retained on your device and is not collected by us in any way.

Links to Other Sites

Our "Application", "Service", "Extension", "Website" may contain links to other sites. If you click on a third-party link, you will be directed to that site. We have no control over and assume no responsibility for the content, privacy policies, or practices of any third-party sites or services.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update our Privacy Policy, thus you are advised to review this page from time to time.
